Get ready to learn, laugh, and have some fun seeing your child’s behavior from a different perspective. Bill Corbett’s workshops and classes help parents and professionals examine what they currently have in their “Discipline Toolboxes” and evaluate the fact that many of these tools are outdated or no longer work. Using lecture, humor, & video, he works closely with adults who raise or care for children in helping them rebuild their toolbox to make room for more effective tools and methods that truly work with today’s challenging child. At the conclusion of his seminar, Bill will be signing copies of his book *Love, Limits, & Lessons: A Parent’s Guide to Raising Cooperative Kids. A portion of the proceeds from book sales will be donated to the Network Against Domestic Abuse (NADA).

ABOUT THE SPEAKER: Bill Corbett is the author of the book, “Love, Limits, & Lessons®” and founder of Cooperative Kids. His book is now available in a Spanish language edition. He is a member of the American Psychological Association (APA), the National Children’s Alliance (NCA), and the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). Bill has a degree in psychology and over 15 years experience as a parent educator. He has three adult children, is a native of Northampton, MA, and lives with his wife Elizabeth in Enfield, Connecticut.
